GRAND ROUNDS SERIES

Tuesday, October 18, 2016
12:00 – 1:00 PM

Albert Sherman Building, AS9-2072

“Meaningful Counterfactuals for Studies of Racial Disparities”

Presented by: Jay S. Kaufman, Ph.D.
Professor and Canada Research Chair in Health Disparities
Department of Epidemiology, Biostatistics, and Occupational Health
McGill University

Jay S. Kaufman is Professor and Canada Research Chair in Health Disparities in the Department of Epidemiology, Biostatistics and Occupational Health at McGill University. He is also currently appointed as Visiting Professor in the School of Public Health of the University of Chile, Visiting Associate Professor in the Department of Epidemiology, University of Michigan School of Public Health, and Adjunct Professor Department of Epidemiology, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Dr. Kaufman's work focuses on social epidemiology, analytic methodology, causal inference and on a variety of health outcomes including perinatal outcomes and cardiovascular, psychiatric and infectious diseases. He is an editor at the journal “Epidemiology”, an associate editor at “American Journal of Epidemiology”, and co-editor of the textbook “Methods in Social Epidemiology” (2nd edition forthcoming in 2016).

Lunch will be provided: Please RVSP to Kelley.Baron@umassmed.edu