PRESENTATIONS	Dr. Ziedonis welcomed everyone and acknowledged the kick off of the new academic year. He opened the meeting by introducing Marcia Fowler, MA, JD, Commissioner, Massachusetts Department of Mental Health and Debra Pinals, MD, DMH Interim Deputy Commissioner for Clinical & Professional Services/State Medical Director. Commissioner Fowler was present for the day meeting with faculty leaders who are managing key partnership areas, Adult/Child, public sector, clinical, training, forensics and CMHSR research, staff and leaders within UMass Memorial and the Medical School System. She is looking forward to expanding DMH's partnership and in particular, learning about our work in Behavioral Health Integration. She presented an overview of DMH and its programs and highlighted the mobile forensic evaluation services model rolled out by DMH two years ago. A national search for a Clinical Director resulted in David Tobin, PhD (introduced later in the program by Dr. Ira Packer) being appointed to the position. The Mobile Forensic Evaluation Service provides risk management services with over 400 evaluations per year and has just recently expanded to go beyond Tewksbury and central Massachusetts. The new Worcester Recovery Center and Hospital, a $302M state-of-the-art hospital, is the largest non-road project in the history of the Commonwealth and will have a phased opening commencing in about 6 weeks. Of note, Commissioner Fowler will be giving Psychiatry Grand Rounds on November 8, 2012 and Dr. Pinals will be giving Psychiatry Grand Rounds on December 20th).  PSYCHIATRY DEPARTMENT'S FIVE YEAR REVIEW PROCESS SUMMARY – The department received outstanding feedback from reviewers on the UMASS Board of Trustee mandated 5 year review that recently concluded. Dr. Ziedonis summarized the key findings which overall were excellent. The positive findings will help facilitate system supported efforts to enhance our departmental mission areas. Each Vice Chair thanked individuals in their areas for their support, commitment, patience and perseverance throughout the process which generated such positive findings and re-enforced our commitment to work together.

Introductions	 Dr. Sheldon Benjamin introduced the following new Trainees: Class of 2012-2013: General Adult Psychiatry PGY-1: Robin Caron, Margaret Lawler, Margaret Tuttle, Noel Warwick General Adult Psychiatry PGY-2: Alison Trexler General Adult Psychiatry PGY-3: Johanna Nino-Gomez Combined Adult/Child PGY-1: Alisha Jaquith, Brian Skehan Neuropsychiatry PGY-1: Nicole Ross Dr. Jean Frazier introduced Kerry Wilkins, MD and James Yon, MD who are now first year fellows in the Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship Training Program, part of the Integrated Adult/Child Psychiatry Track. Dr. Gerardo Gonzalez introduced Sarah Masoodsinaki, MD who has accepted the Addiction Psychiatry Fellowship position for July 2012-June 2013. Dr. Masood is a graduate of the Shahid Beheshti University of Medical Sciences, Tehran, Iran and is currently a fourth year resident in adult psychiatry at the University of Connecticut Health Center, Farmington, Connecticut. Dr. Gonzalez thanked all who assisted in the interview process. Dr. Ira Packer introduced: Jason Ourada, MD, in absentia, due to off-site training at Bridgewater State Hospital, who accepted the Forensic Psychiatry Fellowship position for 2012-2013. Dr. Ourada is a graduate of Creighton University Medical School and completed his psychiatry residency at Boston University. He then graduated from the Addiction Fellowship program at Boston University. Since completion of his training, he has been involved in many addiction programs and has served as Director of Psychiatry for the Suffolk County House of Corrections. David Tobin, PhD (Designated Forensic Psychologist on the Mobile Forensic Evaluation Team) Assistant Professor and Clinical Director, Mobile Forensic Evaluation Team Dr. Ziedonis introduced: Xiaoduo Fan, MD, MPH, MS – Director of the Psychotic Disorders Clinical and Research Program. Dr. Fan's primary responsibilities are to develop an interdisciplinary, translational clinical research program, as well as a specialty clinic in psychotic disorders. He will be involved in teaching and training activities for students, residents and fellows. His research interests complement those of other faculty at UMass and he will be designing some new projects for which he will collaborate with other colleagues in this department and the university community. He is located at One Biotech and looks forward to meeting members of the department. Dan Rowe, MD – Attending Psychiatrist 8E Aaron Frenz, MD Adult Division, Ambulatory Psychiatry Service.

ANNOUNCEMENTS	Dr. Alan Brown introduced Barbara Fisher, VP, Ambulatory and Emergency Services at UMass Memorial who recently replaced Nancy Kruger as Psych Service line VP. Ms. Fisher said she is pleased to have this opportunity to work more closely with the department and to see what we can do for the patients we serve. Dr. Ziedonis took this opportunity to thank Alan Brown, MD, Bill O'Brien and Negar Beheshti, MD for their teamwork in serving the Psychiatry Service line. ► For those of you who haven't had the opportunity to view our Department video that was aired at the Annual APA in Philadelphia, it is now available on our website www.umassmed.edu/Psychiatry on the homepage (right side). Kris McCutcheon announced that effective 8/1/12 there are New Financial Conflict of Interest (FCOI) Disclosure & Training Requirements. All persons, regardless of title or position, who are responsible for the design, conduct and reporting of research, are required to complete a new online training. Additional information can be found at the Office of Research webpage under the "Compliance" link. A strategic plan to transition from paper to electronic submissions that will allow the IRB to review and approve submissions to the office during the transition phase and insure that no ongoing research approvals lapse has been developed. Training opportunities for users are being scheduled for September 2012 to prepare to use the system when we "go-live" on October 1, 2012. Additional information regarding training and support will be announced in the near future. If you have questions or concerns regarding this information please contact the IRB Office at 508-856-4261. Paper submissions of the following types will NOT be accepted by the IRB after Wednesday, August 29th, 2012: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Applications for Initial Review <input type="checkbox"/> Modifications to Approved Human Research <input type="checkbox"/> Continuing Review Progress Reports <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Please note: Continuing Review Progress Reports for studies with a current expiration date of November 30, 2012, or prior must be submitted by this date. These submissions will be processed and scheduled for IRB Meetings during the month of September. We have added an additional IRB meeting in the month of September in order to address the expected large number of submissions. Reportable New Information submissions have no deadline and are the only submissions that will continue to be accepted after August 29th. Submissions of all other types will resume with implementation of the electronic system on October 1. For Continuing Review Progress Reports, reminder notices will be sent in the coming weeks if your research approval is set to expire on or before November 30, 2012. (Depending on when the IRB conducts the Continuing Review of a given study, the expiration date may change.) Any exceptions to the above transition plan must be discussed with Michael Centola, IRB Manager, and will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

	► Kevin Bradley of Genesis Club is looking for a few more runners to join the 40th Annual Falmouth Road Race on August 12th! Team Genesis will be running in their 6th Falmouth Road Race and has raised over $100,000 in five years. These dollars have been used to support the wellness projects of exercise, nutrition and tobacco cessation. Team Genesis continues to be the only non profit team of 75 at Falmouth that is running for mental health awareness. Last year Team Genesis raised $37,000. Genesis Club has developed outstanding results that are helping hundreds of individuals return to work, education and wellness. Team Genesis has been a key component in reducing the community stigma of mental illness.
Awards and Recognition	Mary Ahn, MD and Wendy Marsh, MD, MS both completed the Junior Faculty Development Program 2011-2012. Completion of the JFDP requires considerable time and effort by each participant and helps in the nurturing and developing of junior faculty in becoming the next generation of academic leaders. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Marsh's project was "Research Development Plan: Selective Estrogen Receptor Modulator as Adjunct Treatment for Perimenopausal Depression" under the guidance of her mentor, Jeroan Allison, MD, MS from QHS. • Dr. Ahn's project was "Development of a Training Toolkit in Play Psychotherapy for Residency Programs, under the guidance of her mentor, Kathleen Mazor, EdD from the Department of Medicine. Sheldon Benjamin, MD, served as a mentor in the UMMS Junior Faculty Development Program for 2011-2012. His voluntary service as a mentor required the generous commitment of personal time and effort by Dr. Benjamin and we recognize and support his investment of energy and experience toward the development of another faculty member! Congratulations to Lala Padilla (currently a PGY-3) who won the SAMHSA Minority Psychiatry Fellowship. The purpose of this three-year grant program is to reduce health disparities and improve health care outcomes of racially and ethnically diverse populations by increasing the number of culturally competent behavioral health professionals available to underserved populations in the public and private non-profit sectors. Marsha Ellison, PhD, Sun Kim, PhD, RN, APN-BC and Evgeny Rogaev, PhD, have been approved by the University's Committee on Committees to serve as voting members of the School of Medicine's Council on Equal Opportunity and Diversity Committee for a 3 year term concluding on June 30, 2015. Mathieu Bermingham, MD, has been selected by the Office of Faculty Affairs to receive financial support for registration for the upcoming AAMC Minority Career Faculty Development Seminar scheduled for September in Chicago.
