

UMASS WORCESER FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY RESIDENT BIOGRAPHIES

2009-2010

BARRE FAMILY HEALTH CENTER Second Year Residents

Ekaterina "Katy" Brodski-Quigley – graduated in May, 2008 from Albany Medical College. She received her M.Ed. in Health Education from Boston University and her BS in Biology from Brandeis University. Katy is a talented artist and published author who is fluent in Russian. She was enrolled in an Ethics Scholarship program and received a distinction in Ethics upon graduation.
E-mail: brodskie@ummhc.org

Stephanie Carter - graduated from the University of Massachusetts Medical School in June, 2008. She received her M.S in Molecular Cellular Biology from UMass – Amherst and her BS in Biology from UMass-Amherst as well. Stephanie was awarded membership to the AOA honor society and has shown significant leadership in our community throughout her medical school training.
E-Mail: carters@ummhc.org

Amy Jo Grzysiewicz - graduated in June, 2008 from the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine. She received her MS in biological Sciences at Drexel University College of Medicine and her BA in Spanish from the College of the Holy Cross. She has been an active volunteer during medical school. She enjoys hiking, yoga, and horseback riding. E-mail: grzysiea@ummhc.org

Jennifer O'Reilly - graduated from the State University of New York Upstate Medical University in May, 2008 as a member of AOA. She received her BS in Biology/Chemistry from Elmira College. She has been an active volunteer, coaching youth sports and in the Tar Wars program. Her hobbies include SCUBA diving, photography, and oil painting.
E-Mail: oreilj01@ummhc.org