

UMASS WORCESER FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY RESIDENT BIOGRAPHIES

BARRE FAMILY HEALTH CENTER Third Year Residents

Sailaja Allaparthi – Comes to us by way of the United Kingdom where she has been pursuing advanced medical training. She received her MD from Andhra Medical College in India in 1998. Sailaja enjoys spending time with her family as well as traveling, and reading with an interest in academic teaching.

Email: allapars@ummhc.org

Pearl Guerzon – Grew up in Nyack, New York. She received her BS in Biology from Fordham University and went to Fatima Medical Science Foundation in the Philippines where she received her MD in October, 2002. She attended New York Medical College's fifth Pathway Program in 2006. Pearl enjoys spending time with family and friends, cooking, walking and tennis.

Email: guerzonp@ummhc.org

Jennifer Nohrden - She graduated from The University of Iowa in 2006. She received her BA in art history and philosophy from the University of St. Thomas in Minnesota. She completed a PGY-1 year at Brown University. Her hobbies include hiking, photography and travel.

E-mail: jacobsj@ummhc.org

Joerg Skomrock – Comes to us from Germany where he received his MD from Humboldt University in May, 2002. Joerg has been a surgical resident and a medical researcher in Germany. He enjoys spending time with family, running, politics and baseball. Joerg became Chief Resident for Barre Health Center in May 2009. Email: Skomrocj@ummhc.org