

Marsha Mullaney, BS
Program Administrator, MassHealth Training Forum (MTF)

Ms. Mullaney manages the day to day operations of the MassHealth Training Forum, including collaboration with MassHealth regarding communication needs and priorities; coordination of regional statewide trainings and electronic communications, oversight of the member database and website, and MTF participant recruitment activities.

Prior to joining OCP, Ms. Mullaney worked for Hewlett Packard. She held many positions of increasing responsibility including Trademark Analyst, Information Specialist, Network Operations Support and finally Project Manager.

Ms. Mullaney earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Emanuel College and a Master's Certificate in Project Management from George Washington University. Ms Mullaney is also certified in IT Service Management.