

Disclaimer

The UMass Employee Assistance Program (EAP) website is intended to provide general information about the EAP. In addition, the EAP provides information, links, websites, and contact information to outside resources.

Information is not intended to replace the medical advice of your doctor or healthcare provider. Please consult your doctor or healthcare provider for advice about a medical condition.

Any costs associated with assistance offered by outside resources are the sole financial responsibility of the recipient. The EAP is not responsible for the availability, accuracy, or content of outside resources; nor does the EAP endorse these resources.

Visitors assume full responsibility for operating information on this site. The EAP is not responsible or liable for any claim, loss, or damage resulting from its utilization.

Please call the EAP at 1-800-322-5327 to provide feedback regarding EAP information or outside resources.