STANDARDS FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT

THESIS ADVISOR AND DEPARTMENTAL CHAIR RESPONSIBILITIES

It is a primary responsibility of the Thesis Advisor to provide financial support for conducting the research project and to provide stipend, insurance and fees support for the student. In the event that the thesis advisor becomes unable to support the student financially, the advisor's department or program (that organizational unit receiving indirect costs from the thesis advisor's research program) assumes either:

- 1) direct responsibility for financial support of the student or,
- 2) indirect responsibility for financial support through extension of loans to the advisor for student support.
