Surviving (Happily) My Career in Science

10 Commandments for Negotiating Work and Life

Joanne
Kamens,
Ph.D.

Dr. Joanne Kamens has provided career development and work-life balance advice to hundreds of groups and individuals and has been actively mentoring young scientists for most of her career. She will discuss setting priorities, effective time management skills, and other strategies to enable YOU to achieve satisfaction and happiness at both work and at home.

Dr. Kamens is Senior Director of Research Collaborations for RXi Pharmaceuticals. She founded the Diversity Council at Abbott Bioresearch Center, founded the Boston chapter of the Association for Women in Science, and actively participates in numerous mentoring organizations. She lives locally with her husband, a rocket scientist, and their two teenage children.
