

Marjorie Spencer, MBA
Owner, Marjorie Spencer Consulting

Margie Spencer has over 30 years of experience working with academic medical centers both as a consultant and as a senior executive. After 10 years with ECG management consultants, she served as the COO for University of Washington Physicians. After that, she moved to Milwaukee, where she was the CFO for the Medical College of Wisconsin.

Margie has been a strategic thought partner for leaders of health systems, faculty practice plans and Schools of Medicine. Her areas of expertise include: strategy development, long range financial planning, funds flows design and implementation and governance development. She has successfully led system and operational innovations in large complex organizations.

Throughout her career, Margie has been a speaker for leadership development programs and faculty groups with the goal of demystifying finance and accounting to better engage current and future healthcare leaders.

Currently, Margie lives in Whitefish, MT where she and her husband enjoy hiking, mountain biking, and skiing. She recently served on the board of her local health system where she learned about the challenges of healthcare delivery and population management in rural communities.
