

Katina T. Ball, MS is the Lead Clinician in Adolescent Substance Abuse Services at Y.O.U. Inc. She started her career in mental health services in Worcester, MA as an intern in the Youth Making a Difference (YMD) therapeutic after school program at Y.O.U. inc. in 2007. Shortly after graduating in June of 2008 she was hired as a home outreach specialist through the LUK and Y.O.U. Inc. agencies doing grant work for adolescents with substance use issues before taking on her current role in the Fall of 2009 as Lead Clinician in Substance Abuse Services. Katina is also a Veteran of the United States Air Force where she served from 1997 to 2001 as an Aircraft Specialist on the B-2 Stealth Bomber.