

Lori Joler is a Volunteer Coordinator at Everyday Miracles Peer Recovery Center in Worcester. Her responsibilities include assisting the Volunteers with their peer to peer duties and encouraging and motivating others to embrace a new way of life. Prior to joining Everyday Miracles, Lori had worked in many different corporate settings, but her passion has always been with helping people. When not working, Lori, can be found spending time with her family. Another one of her passions is working with the DAWN program, which involves empowering troubled women.
