

Stephen Fitzsimmons has worked in the addiction field for 30 years. Trained at the National Center for State Courts, Williamsburg, VA and certified as a Drug Court Director by the National Drug Court Institute. He was appointed a Delegate to the National Congress of State Drug Court Systems. Drug Courts utilize judicial oversight to intervene on defendants and enter them into treatment to address the cause of their crime.

Stephen is a Board Certified Interventionist. Member of A.I.S. (Association of Intervention Specialists)

Member of N.I.I. (Network of Independent Interventionists)

Stephen has been conducting Interventions for 25 years and trained in Johnson and A.R.I.S.E. Models of Intervention

He operates Fitzsimmons Associates, a National Intervention and Recovery Management Firm offering Interventions, Monitoring, and Consulting Services.