Mary Flynn MD: I graduated from UMass Medical School & completed residency in Family Medicine at Hahnemann Family Health Center. I work at Plumley Village Health services, where my interests are in women's health, Family Medicine Obstetrics, & working with underserved populations.

Rebecca Lubelczyk MD:

Fred Baker MD: I am a Family Physician, originally from New York City; a graduate of the UMASS Family Residency Hahnemann Health Center, enjoying full-time Family Medicine Practice in Holden, MA with UMASS Memorial Community Group. One of my hobbies/passions is photography and I am honored to be invited and delighted to be here at this event, where hopefully my appreciation for the power and beauty of messages conveyed by images, will be helpful in serving as a judge at this event.

Sai Cherala MD MPH: Dr. Cherala works in Center for Health Policy and Research, CWM as a Senior Clinical Analyst. Dr. Cherala is responsible for the development and evaluation of complex and critical clinical policies, standards, guidelines, and performance indicators designed to improve access and the quality of services for vulnerable populations. Dr. Cherala has a Masters degree in Public Health from the University of Alabama, as well as, a MBBS (MD) in Medicine & Surgery from India. In addition to her educational credentials, Dr. Cherala has seven years experience in public health working for the New Hampshire Department of Health and Human Services plus prior research and medical experience.

Beth Koester MD: I am the Chief of the Family Medicine Hospitalist Service on the Memorial Campus. Previously I worked as a full-spectrum family physician (including OB for several years) before focusing solely on inpatient medicine and administration.

Miguel Olmedo FNP

Sandy Blount PhD

Debi Lang MS: Debi Lang is the training and evaluation manager with the MassAHEC Network, evaluating workforce development programs and providing leadership on projects that support outreach and enrollment in health care. Debi has a BA in English from Tufts University and a MS degree in Educational/Human Service Leadership and Administration from Wheelock College.

Scott Wellman MD

Kristin Mallett MD

Nicholas Apostoleris PhD: Nicholas Apostoleris is a clinical psychologist and is Associate Residency Director of the Fitchburg Family Medicine Residency Program. He is also President Elect of the National Health Care for the Homeless Council.

Mary Philbin EdM: Ms. Philbin is an educator in the Department of Medicine and Assistant Program Director for the Internal Medicine Residency. She is a small group facilitator in DCS 1 and co-course director for the Interstitial Curriculum Experiences. Her areas of expertise include Effective Communication and Health Literacy.
Robert Weinstein MD: Dr. Weinstein is Professor of Medicine & Pathology, and is Chief, Division of Transfusion Medicine. He is co-director of Host Defense & Blood in FOM1, and was Chairman of the UMMS Faculty Council from 2009-2013. He is past-president of the American Society for Apheresis and the World Apheresis Association and Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Clinical Apheresis.
