

Martha is the director of human resources communications, learning and talent development for UMass Medical School joining the HR team in 2012. In this role, she has responsibility for the strategic direction of the UMMS professional development and employee engagement strategy including new hire orientation, onboarding, learning, and HR communications. Martha plays a key role in driving UMMS' high performance culture through cultivating exceptional talent and is involved in developing and executing our Talent Management strategy.

Prior to joining UMMS, she was a vice president at CitiStreet. Her role included the strategy and development of communications, customer service, employee learning and other related professional development workshops. She was also responsible for developing and overseeing their employee product and web communications. Martha holds a BS in Business Management from the University of Maine with honors. She completed the Pension Benefits and Administration Program at Bentley University. Also, Martha was Series 6 & 63 Licensed for 9 years while working in the Financial Industry.