Suspending Evaluations

There are times that you may receive an evaluation that you cannot or should not complete:

- Who Did You Work With Suspension
- Did Not Participate Suspension

Who Did You Work With Suspension

If this is a Who Did You Work With (WDYWW) evaluation and you do not see listed the name of the faculty/student with whom you worked, you should suspend the evaluation.

Note: when you “suspend” an evaluation, the entire “Who Did You Work With” evaluation process will be temporarily suspended. You will not be able to complete an evaluation for people who ARE listed.

1. In the text box provided on the WDYWW form you should enter the name of the educator/student you need to evaluate as the reason for the suspension and select Suspend.

2. You will receive another email indicating that the evaluation has been reassigned.
3. Click on the URL in the email.
4. Re-enter the initial choices; use the drop down to identify and choose the previous missing educator.
5. Select Submit.

Did Not Participate Suspension

You may receive an evaluation for an activity/course in which you did not participate for a particular time period. It could be a WDYWW evaluation, but not necessarily; it may be another type of evaluation. In any case, simply click on Suspend:
