

2020 Boston Marathon® Official Charity Program
 UMass Memorial Foundation and the UMass ALS Cellucci Fund Team
 Application for the 124th Boston Marathon – April 20, 2020

The UMass ALS Cellucci Fund at the University of Massachusetts Medical School (UMMS) is honored to be selected as a member of the 2020 Boston Marathon® Official Charity Program. Named after the late Governor Paul Cellucci, the mission of the UMass ALS Cellucci Fund is to drive awareness and funding for the ALS breakthroughs happening at UMMS under the direction of Robert H. Brown Jr., DPhil, MD, one of the world's foremost authorities on amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS).

All applications must be completed and returned by November 1, 2019 for consideration. Thank you for your interest in joining the UMass ALS Cellucci Fund Team through the 2020 Boston Marathon® Official Charity Program.

Please be aware of the fundraising commitment for the 2020 UMass ALS Cellucci Team runners:

I understand that if I am selected for the UMass ALS Cellucci Fund marathon team, all funds raised will support the UMass ALS Cellucci Fund. I understand that, if accepted, an additional non-refundable Boston Marathon Application fee in the amount of $365 is required, and will be paid by the runner directly to the Boston Athletic Association (BAA) and that this BAA application fee does not count toward my total fundraising requirement. I agree to collect a minimum of $7,500 by May 20, 2020 to support the UMass ALS Cellucci Fund as part of the 2020 UMass ALS Cellucci Fund Team. I understand that CrowdRise reserves the right to charge the credit card that I provide on CrowdRise on behalf of the UMass Memorial Foundation (UMMF)/UMass ALS Cellucci Fund for the balance I owe if I have not submitted the entire balance of $7,500 on or before May 20, 2020, or if I withdraw from the program after January 1, 2020. Donations raised and received will not be refunded if you withdraw at any time.
