7:30 am  Registration
8 am  Welcome and Announcements
8:15 am  The Braden E. Griffin, MD, Memorial Lectureship
Multi-omics in the Fetus and Newborn: Past, Present and Future
Josef Neu, MD
Professor, Department of Pediatrics
Division of Neonatology
University of Florida

9:30 am  Leveraging Telemedicine to Reduce Disparities in Time to Initiation of Therapeutic Hypothermia in Rural Settings
Alexa K. Craig, MD
Staff Physician & Faculty Scientist 1
Maine Medical Partners, Pediatric Neurology
Assist Prof Dept Pediatrics
Tufts University, School of Medicine

10:55 am  The Douglas Richardson, MD, Memorial Lectureship
Cell Therapy in the NICU
C. Michael Cotton, MD
Professor of Pediatrics
Medical Director, Neonatology Clinical Research
Duke University School of Medicine

12:10 pm  Lunch/Poster Session
1:10 pm  John Figgis Jewett, MD Lectureship
A second life: microbe – human interactions beginning in infancy
Juliette C. Madan, MD, MS
Associate Professor, Pediatrics & Epidemiology
Division of Neonatology
Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center

2:30 pm  Workshop 1:
Neurologic Exams for Hypothermia Protocol in HIE Patients
Alexa K Craig, MD

Workshop 2:
Genomics in the NICU
C. Michael Cotton, MD

Workshop 3:
The New England Follow-Up Network: Birth of a Multi-Site Quality Improvement Platform to Optimize NICU Follow-Up Care
Lawrence Rhein, MD, MPH
Chief, Division of Neonatology
Director, CHILD Clinic
UMass Memorial Medical Center
Program Director, Neonatal-Perinatal Fellowship
Associate Professor, Pediatrics
UMass Medical School

3:30 pm  Repeat workshops 1,2 and 3
4:15 pm  AAP District 1 Meeting