Radiology and Imaging, Medical College of Georgia, Augusta University

"Patient and Family Centered Care, Population Health and the Role of the Radiologist"

Dear Faculty, Residents, Fellows, Friends and Alumni,

We are delighted to welcome Dr. James Rawson as the 11th Annual Edward Smith Lecturer.

Dr. Rawson graduated from Tufts University and Tufts Medical School.
Among his many leadership positions, he serves as the Chief of the Division of Health Policy at the Medical College of Georgia, and as the Inaugural Chair of American College of Radiology Commission on Patient and Family Centered Care. From 2003 to 2014 Dr.
Rawson was the Warren Professor and Chair, Department of Diagnostic, Therapeutic, and Interventional Radiology at the Medical College of Georgia. In 2017 he received the RSNA's Honored Educator Award and currently serves as a board member of the ACR's Harvey Neiman Health Policy Institute and as a member of the board of examiners of the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award. He has written extensively about, and is one of the recognized thought leaders, for the role that Radiologists play in providing patient and family centered care.

I look forward to seeing you on Thursday, June 14th at noon.

Best,
Max

The Edward H. Smith, M.D. Annual Lectureship in Radiology at the University of Massachusetts Medical School has been established to honor Dr.
Smith's service over two decades as Chair of the Department. Dr. Smith's vision for developing Radiology at UMass and his ability to attract and retain talented faculty created the foundations for the thriving Department we see today. In recognition of his leadership and dedication, this Lectureship will invite leaders of our specialty to share their clinical experience and scientific achievements. We cordially invite you to join us.

Max P. Rosen, M.D., M.P.H.
Professor and Chair
Department of Radiology
UMass Memorial/UMass Medical School
