Top 10 Reasons to Come to MOE 2018

10. The leaders are really, really ridiculously good looking (damn)

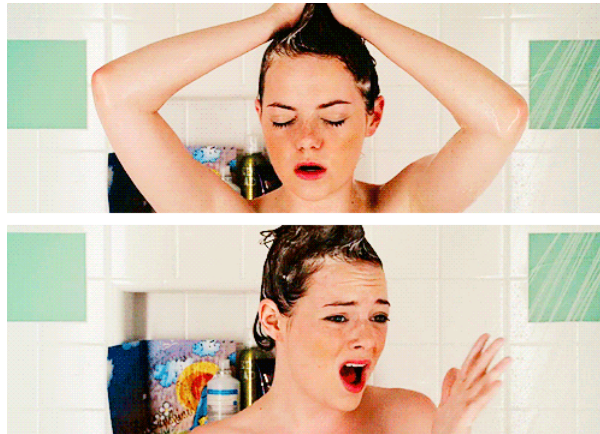

John Woodward, Kara Kennedy, Anna Gubala, Abi Bose, Meaghan Molloy, Dan Wenzel, and Nick Hebda

9. The 2nd years will slave over the grill, clean, and bring the fun to you! (All you have to do is show up!)

8. There is running water, so you can go to the bathroom and shower!
(We totally get that some people don't like to live in their own filth, but like, YOLO.)

7. You'll find out your house assignment... (yes, just like in Harry Potter, but better because we give you a shirt!)

Kelley? Quinsigamond? Blackstone? Burncoat? Tatnuck? Brightwood? Come find out!

6. Prove you are more than your MCAT score (LOL you're in med school now... MCAT literally doesn't matter anymore). Let the MOElympics begin!

Which house will reign supreme??

5. Enjoy the beautiful landscapes and scenery of West Forks ME !!

(have you ever seen the stars in Maine?? how about roaring river rapids??)

4. Unplug from social media, and truly get to know your classmates for the next four years (trust us, this will be the last time to really see everyone, because Lecture Capture exists)

~ New friends!! ~

3. The food is fire. Last year, people were spotted eating pasta salad well past 2am.

Plus, we bring food to satisfy all dietary needs - vegan, gluten-free, allergies, just let us know! Everyone will be fed three meals a day! AND COFFEE.

~ covfefe ~

2. Magic Falls, West Forks is quite a magical place, come see for yourself!!

1. MOE IS A UMASS MED RITE OF PASSAGE

Talk to any alumnus, and they will tell you: GO TO MOE!!!

Camping novices: (skip if you're a pro)

- Maine gets COLD at night, bring a thick fleece or jacket (ex. like a patagonia type sweater) and a pair of sweatpants. Bring two! you will not regret it.
 - Average daily August temp in Maine near West Forks: 78°F
 - Average nightly August temp in Maine near West Forks: 53°F
 - These are AVERAGES it definitely could be colder so be prepared
- ~Treat yo'self~ and bring an extra blanket to put in your sleeping bag, or ideally get a sleeping pad to put under your bag so you are not sleeping directly on the ground (which will be cold).
- Non cotton (synthetic / athletic type) clothes will dry faster and keep you warmer than cotton ones in case it rains.
- Extra socks are your friend! Bring multiple pairs of wool socks for the long nights by the campfire!
- Bring a flashlight or headlamp! It's annoying to share with other people and you will need it when you have to pee in the middle of the night.
 - Bring EXTRA BATTERIES for your flashlight! (especially if you just found a random one in your house somewhere)
- Bring bug spray (duh) and long pants/shirt to keep away the mosquitos

Travel Directions to Magic Falls

Maine White Water Rafting Location in West Forks

DO NOT USE YOUR MOBILE GPS TO LOCATE MAGIC FALLS!!!

Too many guests have programmed 38 Dead River Road, West Forks, Maine into their systems and have ended their journey in the middle of no-where on the back side of Bigelow Mountain. Don't become a statistic or brunt of a classic GPS joke. Follow the driving instructions on your confirmation or call for directions.

To Get to the Base Camp

From Points South:

Take I-95 North. Get off at Exit 133 (formerly 36) - Take Route 201 North for approximately 66 miles. The Base Camp will be on the left, across the bridge.

From the Bangor Area:

Take I-95 South to Newport , Exit 157 (formerly 39) - Take Route 2 West to Skowhegan. Take Route 201 North for approximately 46 miles. The Base Camp will be on the left, across the bridge. - do we need this
