Culture, Healthcare and Medical Training Opportunities in China

A forum jointly hosted by the UMMS-China Program, International Medical Education Program and the Office of Global Health

Sponsored by the Office of Global Health

Date: Monday, August 24, 2009
Time: 4:30 PM
Location: Physiology Seminar Room, S4-325

Agenda

1. Opening remark by Dr. Katherine Luzuriaga, Vice Provost of Global Health
2. Remark by Dr. Michael Godkin, Director of International Medical Education
3. Remark by Dr. Guangping Gao, Director of UMMS-China Program
4. Presentation by students from Tongji University School of Medicine
   • Chinese medical education system, Tongji U SOM, student background, etc.
   • Impression of US clinical electives and healthcare system
   • Summary of the US experience: culture, social life, etc.
   • Introduction to China, Chinese culture, Shanghai, etc.
5. Presentations by UMass students on experience in China
   • Megan McCoy, MD
   • Vincent Mitchell, III
6. Cross cultural medical training opportunities in China (Dr. Guangping Gao)