Fig. 3. Relative risk of coronary heart disease according to high-density lipoprotein (HDL) and low-density lipoprotein (LDL) cholesterol levels in men age 50 to 70 years: Framingham study, 4-year follow-up. (Adapted from Kannel WB. Am Heart J 1985;110:1100-7.)